

40 Personal Letterheads of Influential People

by UPRINTING BLOG:

Individuals and companies in all industries make it a point to have their own unique letterhead, and for good reason. Letterheads are certainly very effective branding and marketing tools. In addition to being used for official letters and business transactions, they carry a company's corporate identity and can further boost its reputation. Letterheads helped even icons like Elvis, Ali and Einstein to reach out to both business partners and supporters. Sending a letterhead as opposed to an ordinary piece of paper can really make a huge difference.

Dear John,

Thank you for your letter.

Please forgive the amount of time that has elapsed since I received it but as you know I am either on the road performing or in the studio recording singles and albums and until I sit down with a stack of fan mail every two or three weeks, I don't realise how much has accumulated.

At the moment I am finishing my new album and I hope you are enjoying "Rebel Rebel", which will be included in the album. I am mad on it. Hope you are.

I want you to all know and tell your mates that the mail I've been receiving about performing live again is starting to get to me. I can't promise but I think you lot will lure me back!

You know it is your letters and cards and applause after each show which makes me able to carry on and devise new ideas and schemes to entertain you and make me happy. DON'T EVER STOP.

Love on ya!
